PRESS RELEASE

September 19, 2006

An ongoing Undercover Narcotics Investigation by the Georgetown Police Department and officers from two different Cincinnati Area Law Enforcement Agencies has resulted in the arrest of two subjects from Cincinnati, Ohio. Darnell Sharp and Antonio Green, both 18 years of age, were arrested by Georgetown Police Officers in the early morning hours of September 19, 2006. Both Sharp and Green were charged with Trafficking in Cocaine and Marihuana. The multi-jurisdictional investigation resulted in the seizure of a substantial amount of Cocaine, Marihuana and Crack Cocaine, along with various items of Drug Paraphernalia. Subsequent to the arrest of the two Cincinnati men, a search of a residence in Georgetown turned up Narcotics and Paraphernalia. Two local individuals are facing charges as a result of this. Chief Buddy Coburn stated he believes additional arrests and search warrants will result from this investigation. Chief Coburn said, we received a tremendous amount of help from the departments in the Cincinnati area. They assisted us in every way including manpower, surveillance and intelligence about the suspects. The jurisdictions assisting will not be revealed, at their own request, due to their ongoing investigations stemming from this case.
